BLOOD STANDS STILL

PILES CAN'T BE CURED UNTIL CIRCULATION IS RESTORED

It is useless to try to cure piles by operating or use of salves or suppositories—as long as the blood is stagnant in the lower bowel, new tumors will continue to form. Clear the blood—free the circulation. Then piles will leave for good. A successful, scientific, internal remedy is Dr. Leonard's Hem-Roid, sold under guarantee by J. James Wood & Son. Hem-Roid does its work thoroughly.
$1 for 24 days' treatment. Dr. Leonard's Co., Station B, Buffalo, N. Y. Write for booklet.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shipley of Cincinnati were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. Philip Clark in West Second street.

Mrs. C. P. Dieterich and baby are guests of her mother, Mrs. O. M. Johnson, of Covington, and expect to be gone a month.

Fleming Gazette—Miss Clara Belle Walton, who was the guest of R. K. Hart and family, went to Maysville yesterday afternoon for a few days' stay before returning to her home in Lexington.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Finnegan and Miss Margaret Finnegan, Mrs. Joseph Allen and son, Bradshaw, Mrs. Mary Kinsler and son, Sol, all of Covington, were here Sunday in attendance upon the funeral of the late Mrs. James Downey.

KEEP AN EYE

On Lieutenant-Governor Cox in Gubernatorial Race in Kentucky Say Political Sharps

Frankfort, Ky., Dispatch to The Enquirer, May 29th.

Lieutenant-Governor Cox of Maysville is not out of the race for the Republican nomination for Governor. In fact before the end of this week he may be very much in it.
For some time Lieutenant-Governor Cox has had the unqualified promise of practically every man of the present Administration, with the exception of Commissioner of Agriculture Rankin and Clerk of the Court of Appeals Adams, of their support if he made the race for the nomination for Governor.

Governor Wilson, Attorney-General Breath-itt, Auditor James and Secretary of State Bruner are in the Cox band wagon. These promises were made to Governor Cox some time ago, and many of them have been renewed.

The other day an influential insurance man stepped up to him and said: "Governor, I've just come over from Washington, and while there I had a talk with Mr. So-and-so, and he told me that Senator Bradley said he was for you for Governor," and then the two men went off for a little chat.

The question will be put to Senator Bradley when he comes over here to make, the principal address at the dedication exercises that will be held June 2d.

COX MUM ON SUPPORT.

Lieutenant-Governor Cox does not know, or at least he will not say, if there is any understanding between him and Senator Bradley.

"I don't know what I am going to do," was the reply of Lieutenant-Governor Cox when he was asked if he intends to seek the Republican nomination for Governor. "I have sometime to think about it, and it may be that the elections this fall had best be decided before there is talk of an election fall after next." Governor Cox then made the statement that if he decided to make the race he would have the support of practically every member of the State Administration.
